

CV of Failures

Tom Sydney Kerckhove

A list of failures might seem depressing, but it exists for a good reasons:

- Being transparent about the fact that failures occur, a lot. A CV might be impressive, but it does not show the failed attempts, it only shows the successes.
- Giving a purpose to failures. Failing is not fun, but being able to put each failure on a CV of failures gives a silver lining to each failure.

Please keep in mind that this document only mentions the failures. It does not mention any circumstances that might explain how the failure is not necessarily a reflection of my skill, character or work ethic.
